OPPORTUNITIES

Techno-Tools for the Second Language Teacher with Valeria Palladino

November 23, 2009 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Grade 4 – 12 Second Language Teachers

ABOUT THIS LEARNING OPPORTUNITY:

Gain some cool ideas on how to use basic technologies in your classroom to support student learning in second language programs of study. During this hands-on workshop you will:

- Explore technology tools and how they can be used in your instructional program
- Practice use of these tools and try out implementation of personal ideas to fit your instructional needs
- Share some personal technology uses and experiences and generate new activity ideas
- Leave with new materials, tools and links to all information covered to modify and use in your next week's classes

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Valeria Palladino is a long time long-life learner, with a few milestones and sets of expertise in her backpack. A second language teacher by trade, with ESL, Italian and Spanish as a second language backgrounds, she taught at all levels of K – 12 schools in two separate countries: Italy and Canada. Her formal academic background includes a BA in Foreign Languages, A BEd in secondary education and a MEd in secondary education, through which she completed a project on Ethnolinguistic Vitality around the Italian community in Edmonton. Valeria has been a member of the Alberta Association for Multicultural (AAME) on behalf of IHLA since 2004. She works as a sessional instructor for the University of Alberta, with pre-service teachers, in second language and culture methodologies and curricula preparation courses both in elementary and secondary routes.

This learning opportunity is subsidized as a result of a grant from Alberta Education to support implementation.
